STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan in Article 140-A commands the provincial governments to establish a local government system and devolve political, administrative and financial authority and responsibility to elected representatives at the local level.

In view of this command of the Constitution read with its Article 32 and Article 37, the Government of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa held detailed consultations with technical experts, political workers and administrators to prescribe a framework for creating a local government system in conformity with the Constitution.

Hence, a new local government system is proposed to establish duly empowered and, at the same time, accountable local governments made up of elected representatives to exercise devolved political, administrative and financial authority and discharge their responsibility of improving governance and providing better services to the people at local level. Hence, this Bill.
